DIOCESE OF ARGYLL AND THE ISLES RETREAT

'Hope in Small Things'

Tuesday 23 to Friday 26 October 2012

The parables of Jesus have lots to say to us about finding God in the small circumstances of life. God clearly cares about the small details of our lives. Most of us are called to live small quiet lives of great faithfulness. To do this we must find and live in hope. The seven addresses will explore the beauty and holiness of 'small things' and how we might find God in them. We will search for encouragement to persevere when our church and personal spiritual life might seem limited. The addresses will be accompanied by fine art images, as well as poetry and other writings that we can use for reflection. The retreat will be in silence from after Compline on Tuesday until after the final address on Thursday. The retreat director will be the Rev Canon Anne Dyer, rector of Holy Trinity, Haddington and former Warden of Cranmer Hall, St John's College, Durham.
