DIOCESE OF ARGYLL AND THE ISLES RETREAT

The Cook, The Thief, His Wife, Her Lover – reflections on the story of Joseph and God's chosen people in slavery, exile, freedom and the promised land.....

Monday 27 to Thursday 30 October 2014

This year every congregation in the Diocese of Argyll and The Isles is involved in a whole year of Reflection for Action. We cannot share the good news of God's Kingdom unless we reflect, experience, know and recognise God's presence in our own lives. The 'stories' of scripture bring together reflection and experience, knowledge and recognition in very vivid ways which help us cope with our own experiences of slavery, exile, alienation and misunderstanding. This Retreat, will use the story of Joseph to help us recognise the peace which passes all understanding promised by Our Lord Jesus Christ. The Cook, The Thief, His Wife, Her Lover – have much to teach us –

Bishop Kevin of Argyll and The Isles will lead the Retreat and will be available before the Retreat and throughout the three days to help those who find the experience difficult or those who are making a retreat for the first time. If you would like to speak to Bishop Kevin about the experience of retreat please contact him at the Diocesan Office, tel. no. 01631 570870.
